1. The Polish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Foksal Street near the Kameralna restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Jaroslaw Peaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congess of Peace, 25X1 Dominik Horodynski, Ostap Dluski and some others including one priest, a woman, etc. The pearson who decides everything within the organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he is really very influential. He could be termed a back room boy. He is not very well known in the USER for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communiet. Tesemble Stalin, possessing the same type of moustache about which he is snobbishly round. He is aged somewhere between 15 and 50. He is responsible for all foreign trips made on behalf of the Committee. Without his consent nobdy can go abroad and he was responsible for the postponement at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Peace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propaganda happens in Poland are they called upon. Generally the Committee works for abroad, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectual personalities who are instructed in many things suitable for regime propaganda. Very often members of the Committee are informed that articles they have written but have never even seen have apared in these to the propagand	معمن		C	LASSIFICATION	SECR		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	2 5X1A
COUNTRY Poland DATE DISTR. 25 Aug 1994 NO. OF FACES 1 NO. OF PACES 1 NO. OF FACES 1 NO. O		$	·			,
SOURCE 1. The Polish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Poksal Strest near the Kameralna restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Javoslaw Jussekkievicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Peace, 55X1 etc. Within the organization is Diusel Who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the World Congress of Peace, 55X2 the Congress of Peace, 55X3 the Congress of Peace, 55X4 the Central Committee of the World Congress of Peace, 55X4 etc. Within the organization is Diusel Who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the World Congress of Peace, 55X4 the general yabile although he is one of the soci influential and he are really early influential. He could be armed a back roces by. He is not very well known by the peace of the world concluse the peace of the world concluse. Physically he tries to constitute the confidence of Mecow circulas. Physically he tries to be alled Russian-diurated Committe. The was in the USES he has the confidence of Mecow circulas. Physically he tries to prove the confidence of Mecow circulas. Physically he tries to prove the confidence of Mecow circulas. Physically he tries to prove the confidence of Mecow circulas. Physically he tries to prove the second of the confidence of Mecow circulas. Physically he tries to prove the provide the peace of moustache about which he is embbighly proud, He is egged consenter between 45 and 50. He is responsible for all provide the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment hoody can go abroad and he was responsible for the postponeent at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Peace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, constines an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and some		y ~		INFORM	ATION	REPOI	CD NO.	***
SOURCE 1. The Polish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Foksal Street near the Kameralna restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Javolaw Joseph Lord and members are Leopola Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Feace, and members are Leopola Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Feace, and members are Leopola Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Feace, and members are Leopola Infeld who is also member including one priest, a woman 5 x1 bearing in the person who decides everything within the organization is Dunski who is also been of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the Unifed Polish Workers' Party and he is really very inflmential. He could be termed a back room by. He is not very well henome $25\text{X1}$ country in actuality, lossley cooperating with Cyranklevic and Berman. He was in the USSN for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. 25X1X 25X1X		COUNTRY	Poland				DATE DISTR. 25 Aug 1954
This is unevaluated information 1. The Polish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Poksel Street near the Kameralaa restaurant opposite the Journalists' Cluh. The chairman is Javoslaw Tesseklewicz and members are Loopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Peace, 75X1 Dominik Horodyneki, Ostap Dluski and some others including one priest, a woman, 75X1 etc. The Polish he organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he is really very influential. He could be termed a back room by. He is not very well known by the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the 25X1X country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankiewicz and Berman. He was in the USSR for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. 25X1X 25X1	ί Χ (10	SUBJECT	Polish Peace O	Committee/Facto	ors		NO. OF PAGES 1
The Polish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Foksal Street near the Kameralna restaurant opposite the Journaliste' Club. The chairman is Jaroslav Iwaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Peace, 25X1 Dominik Horodyneki, Ostap Dlueki and some others including one priest, a woman 25X1 thin the organization is Dlueki who is a left of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he is really very influential. He could be termed a back room by. He is not very well known 150 the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the 25X1X country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankievicz and Bernan. He was in the USER for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X The proof of the condition of the past of
SOURCE 1. The Folish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Foksal Street near the Kameralna restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Jaroslaw Iwaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Feace, 25X1 Dominit Horodynski, Ostep Dluski and some others including one priest, a woman, etc. Within the organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he really very influential. He could be termed a back room boy. He is not very well known to the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the 25X1X country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankiewicz and Berman. He was in the USS for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X The tense of the Committee of Moccow circles. Physically he tries to resemble Stalin, possessing the same type of moustache about which he is snobbiehly proud. He is aged somewhere between h5 and 50. He is responsible for all foreign trips made on behalf of the Committee. Without his consent nobody can go abroad and he was responsible for the Postponement at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Feace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propaganda happens in Poland are they called upon. Generally the Committee works for abroad, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectua
SOURCE 1. The Folish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Foksal Street near the Kameralna restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Jaroslaw Iwaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Feace, 25X1 Dominit Horodynski, Ostep Dluski and some others including one priest, a woman, etc. Within the organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he really very influential. He could be termed a back room boy. He is not very well known to the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the 25X1X country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankiewicz and Berman. He was in the USS for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X The tense of the Committee of Moccow circles. Physically he tries to resemble Stalin, possessing the same type of moustache about which he is snobbiehly proud. He is aged somewhere between h5 and 50. He is responsible for all foreign trips made on behalf of the Committee. Without his consent nobody can go abroad and he was responsible for the Postponement at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Feace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propaganda happens in Poland are they called upon. Generally the Committee works for abroad, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectua		4	.:
1. The Polish Peace Committee has its headquarters on Foksal Strest near the Kameralna restaurant orposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Jaroslaw Iwaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Peace, 58X1 Dominik Horodynski, Ostap Dluski and some others including on priest, a woman 58X1X etc. The person who decides everything within the organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he is really very influential. He could be termed a back room bay. He is not very well known is the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the 28X1X country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankiewicz and Berman. He was in the USR for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. he has the confidence of Moscow circles. Physically he tries to resemble Stalin, possessing the same type of moustache about which he is snobbishly proud. He is aged somewhere between 45 and 50. He is responsible for all foreign trips made on behalf of the Committee. Without his consent nobody can go abroad and he was responsible for the postponement at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Peace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the rallway station. All visas ere arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propaganda happens in Poland are they called upon. Generally the Committee works for abroad, using for this purpose all possible Polis		THIS DECUMENT OF THE UNITED AND 794, OF I LATION OF ITS PROMEDITED BY	T CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFE O STATES, WITHIN THE MEANIN THE U.S. CODE, AN AMERICO. S CONTENTS TO OR ACCEIPT & Y LAW, THE REPRODUCTION OF	COTING THE WATIONAL DEFENS IS OFFITTLE IS, BECTIONS 78 ITS TRANSMISSION ON REVE Y AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON I Y THIS FORM IS PROHISITED.	z 3	THIS		25X1X
restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Jaroslaw Iwaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Peace, 25%1 Dominik Horodynski, Ostap Dluski and some others including one priest, a woman, etc. The person who decides everything within the organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he is really very influential. He could be termed a back room boy. He is not very well known to the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankiewicz and Berman. He was in the USSR for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. he has the confidence of Moscow circles. Physically he tries to resemble Stalin, possessing the same type of moustache about which he is snobbishly proud. He is aged somewhere between 45 and 50. He is responsible for all foreign trips made on behalf of the Committee. Without his consent nobody can go abroad and he was responsible for the postponement at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Peace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propagnada, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectual personalities who are instructed in many things suitable for regime propagnada. Very often members of the Committee are informed that articles they have written but h		SOURCE
restaurant opposite the Journalists' Club. The chairman is Jaroslaw Iwaszkiewicz and members are Leopold Infeld who is a member of the World Congress of Peace, 25%1 Dominik Horodynski, Ostap Dluski and some others including one priest, a woman, etc. The person who decides everything within the organization is Dluski who is also head of the foreign division of the Central Committee of the United Polish Workers' Party and he is really very influential. He could be termed a back room boy. He is not very well known to the general public although he is one of the most influential people in the country in actuality, closely cooperating with Cyrankiewicz and Berman. He was in the USSR for a long time and is a so called Russian-educated Communist. he has the confidence of Moscow circles. Physically he tries to resemble Stalin, possessing the same type of moustache about which he is snobbishly proud. He is aged somewhere between 45 and 50. He is responsible for all foreign trips made on behalf of the Committee. Without his consent nobody can go abroad and he was responsible for the postponement at the last minute of my contemplated visit to Berlin for the meeting of the Peace Praesidium in May 1954. 2. The technique of how people are directed to go abroad is quite interesting. Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propagnada, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectual personalities who are instructed in many things suitable for regime propagnada. Very often members of the Committee are informed that articles they have written but h
Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs. Only when something connected with foreign propaganda happens in Poland are they called upon. Generally the Committee works for abroad, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectual personalities who are instructed in many things suitable for regime propaganda. Very often members of the Committee are informed that articles they have written but have never even seen have appeared in the foreign press. In 1953 the Polish Committee organized a campaign to promote the foreign press. In 1953 the Polish Committee organized a campaign to promote the Sit 10 promote the sit 1	;		restaurant opp and members ar Dominik Horody etc. within the org the Central Co influential. the general pu country in act in the USSR fo resemble Stali ly proud. He foreign trips go abroad and	e Leopold Infernski, Ostap Dlanization is Dammittee of the He could be teablic although a long time he has the con, possessing is aged somewh made on behalf he was respons	luski who is uski and is uski who United Pormed a backer is one y coopera anfidence are between of the Coible for	a member of some others of salso he clish Works of the mosting with of Moscow of the pof Moscow of the mosting with of the postpon the pos	chairman is Jaroslaw Iwaszkiew of the World Congress of Peace, including one priest, a woman, the person who decides everything of the foreign division of the foreign division of the is not very well known to the influential people in the transiewicz and Berman. He was transiewicz and Berman. He was transiewicz and Berman the transiewicz and Berman the transiewicz and Berman the was transiewicz and Berman the was transiewicz and Berman the was transiewicz and Berman the Berman transiewicz and Berman transiewic	icz 25X1X y 6X1X s ish-called upon. Generally the Committee works for abroad, using for this purpose all possible Polish intellectual personalities who are instructed in many things suitable for regime propaganda. Very often members of the Committee are informed that articles they have written but have never even seen have appeared in the foreign press. In 1953 the Polish Committee organized a campaign to promote the foreign press. In 1953 the Polish Committee organized a campaign to promote the foreign press. In 1953 the Polish Committee organized a campaign to promote the foreign press.			Usually the delegate does not know until nearly the last moment whether he is going or not. His passport and visas are delivered to him at home, sometimes an hour or two before the departure of his train or plane, and sometimes they are brought directly to the railway station. All visas are arranged by the UB and a person supposed to travel has nothing to do with the formalities. The Polish Committee of Defenders of the Peace has very little to do with internal affairs.
-end- 114.74 55M 814.1 5514 917.114 55M		. /	called upon. all possible P suitable for r	Generally the olish intellec egime propagan	Committee tual perso da. Very	works for onalities w often memb	abroad, using for this purpose ho are instructed in many thing ers of the Committee are inform	gs ned
-end- 114.74 55M 814.1 55M 917.114 55M
CLASSIFICATION SECRET	7	. [-e)	nd-	114.74 55M 814.1 55M	